A MESSAGE TO THE PRESS

It is the express purpose of the Rutgers Sports Information Office to assist all those interested in Rutgers football. Your requests for interviews, pictures, slides, film, feature stories, facts and figures are welcomed. Telecopier service is available at our College Avenue Office in Alexander Johnston Hall during the week and we will do our utmost in helping you file your stories from the press box after the game. These services are free of charge. Please advise this office of your need for telecopier assistance prior to each home contest and also make arrangements through your local telephone company for placement of special phone orders.

Normally, there is room for only one commercial radio station and one student station covering visiting teams, so please request permission to broadcast as soon as possible. The official visiting stations will receive priority.

For press box tickets and additional information, contact:

TICKET INFORMATION

Three season ticket plans are available to Scarlet Knight football fans this year. Season reserved seats at $24.00 for four home games at Rutgers Stadium will be available until September 12. Two five-game packages, featuring the Penn State game at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, are available at $31.00 and $33.00 until August 26. Junior season reserved seats for those 16 years of age and under are priced at $12.00 for the four Rutgers Stadium games and $17.00 or $19.00 for the two five-game packages. For the fourth consecutive season, a family plan is offered to Rutgers fans. For the first year, tickets are located on the five-yard line in the East stands in a package from one adult up to two adults and three children for the price range from $12.00 to $27.00. Additional children may be added under the plan for two dollars. Individual reserved seats may be purchased for $7.00 per game and $3.50 for youngsters. Tickets on the five-yard line in the East Stands are $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for youngsters. Reserved parking at Rutgers Stadium will cost $8.00 for the season, unreserved, $4.00.

Tickets for Rutgers' game against Penn State are priced at $10.00, $8.00 and $6.00. The junior ticket is $2.00 less in each price category.

DR. EDWARD J. BLOUSTEIN PRESIDENT - RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

The 17th president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, Dr. Edward J. Bloustein is at once a lawyer, a political theorist, a former political analyst for the State Department, professional philosopher, international scholar and teacher.

And he is without a doubt Rutgers' number one sports buff, present and urging on the Scarlet Knights at every sporting event he is able to attend.

Dr. Bloustein was educated at New York University's Washington Square College, where he was graduated as a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He went on to earn a Bachelor of Philosophy degree at Wadham College of Oxford University in 1950, after attending Oxford as a Fulbright Scholar. He earned a Ph.D. in philosophy at Cornell University in 1954 and a law degree there in 1959.

Dr. Bloustein was a lecturer in the philosophy of the law and social philosophy at Brooklyn College in 1950-51 and instructor in logic and philosophy at Cornell in 1954-55. He also served as a political analyst for the State Department in 1951-52 and again in 1955-56.

Dr. Bloustein served as a law clerk to Judge Stanley H. Fuld of the New York State Court of Appeals from 1959-1961, when he joined the New York University School of Law as an assistant professor. He rose to the rank of full professor in 1964.

When Dr. Bloustein assumed the presidency in 1971 of Rutgers, the eighth oldest university in the United States, he had been president, since 1965, of Bennington College, a small, highly-regarded experimental liberal arts college in Bennington, Vt.

As befits a man of logical thought and training, Dr. Bloustein is a decisive administrator.

Since coming to Rutgers Dr. Bloustein has decentralized the provosts' offices in New Brunswick, Camden and Newark and reorganized the University's central administration.

Also initiated were an office of Community Affairs and a Rutgers University Foundation to raise private funds. Three new schools, Cook College, the School of Criminal Justice and the Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology were established.

To get back to Dr. Bloustein as a sports enthusiast. He often strolls over from his home in Piscataway Township to talk to football coach Frank Burns about the team on the nearby practice field.

When the Scarlet Knights were about to depart for the NCAA basketball tournament in Philadelphia two years ago, he sent the team a note of congratulations and best wishes and signed it, "The Other Eddie." This was in wry reference to himself as opposed to "Steady Eddie" Jordan, a mainstay in helping Rutgers compile 31 consecutive victories that season.

FRANK BURNS

COACH

Frank Robert Burns became head football coach at Rutgers - The State University of New Jersey in January, 1973. In the short span of four seasons, the Scarlet Knights have burst into the national limelight by playing some of the finest football in the East.

Last season had to be one of the greatest ever for the one-time Rutgers quarterback and linebacker. The Scarlet Knights rolled to 11 straight victories, their first perfect season since they were 9-0 in 1961. In an emotional speech after the final victory over Colgate, Burns said to his players that "this season is something you're going to remember for the rest of your lives." Later he told the media, "These guys are winners. I'm very proud of each and every one of them. When you win 11 games, you learn how to win."

The fabulous season earned Burns accolades as the "Coach of the Year" by the New Jersey Sports Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In his four seasons as head coach, Burns now has an overall record of 33-10-1 and a winning percentage of .768.

The perfect season was not quite so unexpected. Burns has been slowly building the team, making it better each year. In his first season as head coach, Rutgers compiled a 6-5 mark. Then came an impressive 1974 campaign which featured a 20-3 victory over Air Force on the way to a 7-3-1 record. The 1976 season was the start of the current 18-game winning streak, the longest of any college in the country. After splitting the first four games, the Scarlet Knights won the last seven to finish with a 9-2 record that included an impressive 21-10 victory over Syracuse.

But, winning is nothing new to Burns. As a quarterback for the Scarlet, from 1945 through 1948, he established a number of passing records, picking up the nickname, "Flinging Frank". He was selected to the All-East team twice, received honorable mention on most of the All-American teams, played in the 1949 East-West Shrine game and was named the "Most Valuable Player" in the New York Herald-Tribune All-Star game.

"If it were not for my years of coaching association with Rutgers," says the North Brunswick resident, "I probably would not be in coaching today. My years here as a player were a good foundation for me both professionally and philosophically, because I learned how to win and what it takes to be a winner."

His previous coaching assignments at Rutgers were as freshman coach of the running backs (1949-50), freshman head coach (1953-54), varsity backfield coach (1955-56 and 1961-67) and offensive coordinator and associate head coach under John Bateman (1968-72). In between, he served in 1951 and 1952 as head coach of Johns Hopkins, at the time, one of the youngest head coaches in the nation at 23. Following the 1956 campaign, he took over as head coach at Chatham (N.J.) High School, a school which had not been represented in football for 25 years.

Known for his accomplishments as an offensive ball player and coach, he surprised one writer in the past by saying that if he had played at the time of two-platoon football, he would have preferred playing on defense. In fact, he was named MVP in the 1949 College All-Star game with the NFL champion New York Giants for his 17 tackles as a linebacker. The All-Stars won, 28-13, something the collegians have not done too many times since.

Following his graduation, he played professional football with the Jersey City Giants for a brief period before returning to coach at Rutgers full-time.

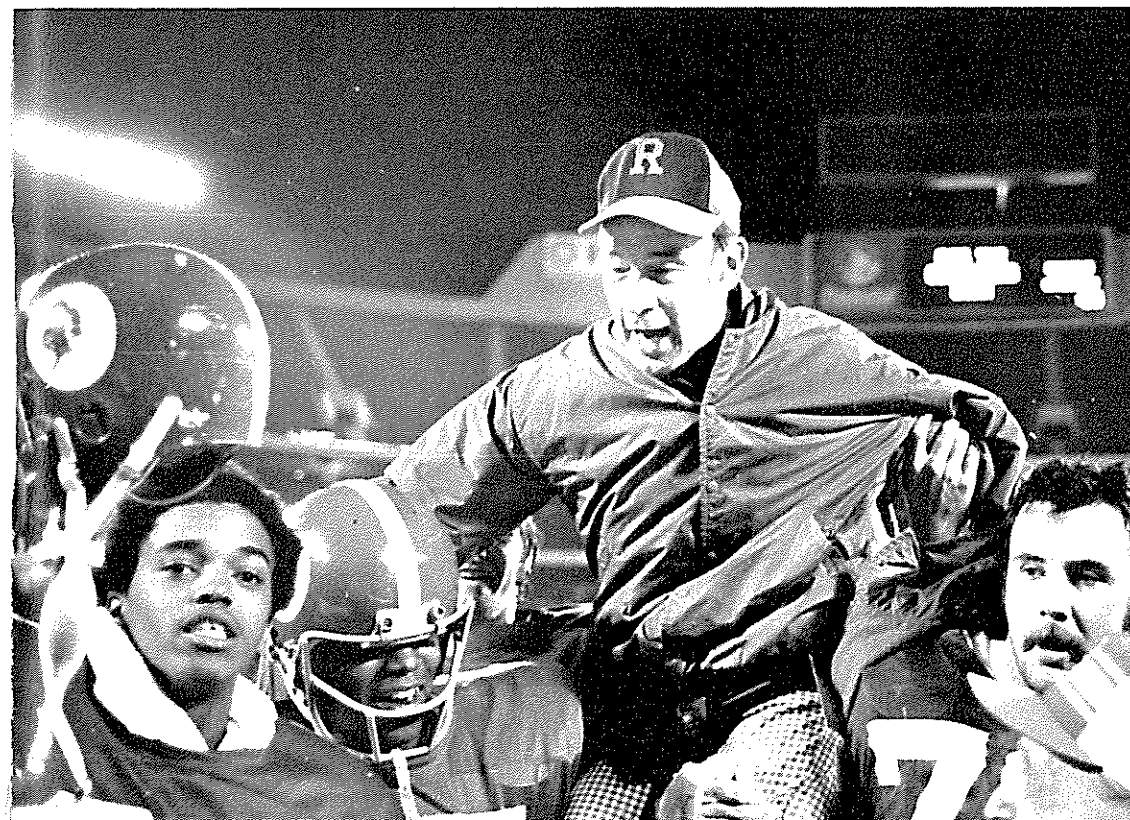

Burns was also an outstanding catcher for the Scarlet Knight baseball teams. During his senior season, the baseball squad rolled to an 18-8-1 record. That mark is the second best season ever in the history of the sport at Rutgers.

A native of Roselle Park, he is married to the former Linda Randolph of New Brunswick. He has three children, Frank, Jr., 24; Thomas, 23, a student at Rutgers; and Barbara Jean, 20. Frank, Jr., graduated from Nichols College in 1974 where he was named to the ECAC Division III All-Star team as a quarterback.

A Suggestion for The Top Twenty Polls

DEFENSIVE

COACHING STAFF

ROBERT NASO, Defensive Coordinator

A 1959 Rutgers graduate, Bob was a gifted lacrosse player, earning second team All-America honors as a midfielder while also performing at two positions, center and blocking back, for the Scarlet single-wing football teams between 1956 and 1958. Naso was a standout scholastic player in both sports at Sewanhaka High School on Long Island. His coaching career began as Rutgers lightweight football and lacrosse assistant immediately after his graduation. After an Army stint, he was made varsity lacrosse coach and directed the freshman football program in 1961. His frosh football record for three seasons was 11-4-1 and, after four years as a defensive coach, he became defensive coordinator in 1968 under John Bateman and continues in that role under Frank Burns. Naso gave up his lacrosse duties in 1974 after 13 seasons and a 95-59-1 career record. Many of his stick squads were ranked among the nation's top teams and his squad twice appeared in the national playoffs. Naso, his wife, Carol, and their three daughters, Andrea (16), Cynthia (13), and Felicia (9), live in Piscataway.

PETER SAVINO, Defensive Back Coach

Like his fellow coaches, Burns, Naso, Speranza and Taigia, Pete is a former Rutgers player, so versatile that he saw service in three different positions, at quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. The 1969 alumnus was the first recipient of the New Brunswick Touchdown Club Trophy which recognized the impact his ability, leadership and dedication had during his career. A Belle Mead resident, Savino starred as a signal-caller at Perth Amboy where he also played basketball, baseball and was a member of the track squad. Named a Rutgers freshman assistant in 1969, he missed the following season because of a military obligation and returned to coach the frosh team for two seasons, winning seven of 13 games. He was chosen the defensive backfield coach in 1973 and Savino's students rewarded his first season with a record 27 interceptions. Pete and his wife, Jill, have a daughter, Suzanne Gail, 4½.

TED COTTRELL, Defensive Line Coach

The Scarlet defensive line is traditionally one of the closest knit of the team's units and under Cottrell last year, it was not only the most harmonious but clearly one of the best in Rutgers history. A task master who wisely spreads his rewards, Ted employs the tactics he learned in four years of pro ball with the Atlanta Falcons and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Following his pro experience, Cottrell served for a season as assistant football coach and track mentor at his alma mater, Delaware Valley, where he won All-Middle Atlantic Conference honors three times. His rapport with the defensive line is especially noted when he leads calisthenics and gets back much vocal support. His veterans and his young learners respect his dedication and his enthusiasm. Ted lives in New Brunswick with his wife, Barbara.

OFFENSIVE

COACHING STAFF

WILLIAM SPERANZA, Offensive Coordinator

Bill was the starting quarterback on the undefeated Rutgers football team of 1961 and until 1974 held the school record for the longest pass completion (87 yards to Lee Curley against Princeton during the unbeaten season). Also a former baseball player at Rutgers, Speranza is in his fourth season as offensive backfield coach and in addition now serves as offensive coordinator. He is credited with the development of "JJ" Jennings as the national scoring leader in 1973. Speranza also had two perfect seasons as a coach, taking the Scarlet freshmen to identical 5-0 records in 1965 and 1967. The 1962 Rutgers alumnus played on football teams that compiled 24 wins in 27 games and on baseball squads that showed a combined 40-14 mark. Following a three-year 15-5 record as frosh coach, Speranza took charge of the varsity defensive backs in 1968. Bill and his wife, Linda, live in Bridgewater and have two daughters, Susan and Karen.

JAMES TAIGIA, Offensive Line Coach

His chiefly wisdom as a hard-nosed ex-sailor on the fine post-war Rutgers teams of the late forties earned Jim the nickname, "Chief," and the Scarlet linemen who have learned their trade from him over the years continue to respect him in kind. His insistent methods have motivated Rutgers linemen since 1968. A tough two-way guard on the Frank Burns-led teams, Taigia enjoyed an extensive scholastic coaching career prior to his appointment at his alma mater. The long-time resident of Highland Park served initially at Rahway, then at Piscataway and at Hillside before returning to Rahway. Like the popular investment broker, when Taigia talks, everybody listens; his particular investment being the development of blockers. As a player during the 47-48-49 seasons, "Chief" helped the Scarlet sail through 8-1, 7-2 and 6-3 records. The former well-known basketball official now lives with his wife, Ruth, in New Brunswick.

RICHARD CURL, Varsity Receivers Coach

Dick joined the Rutgers staff three springs ago and works with wide receivers and tight ends as well as directing the sub-varsity program. His appointment followed a year as head coach at Trenton State where he guided the Lions to a 5-4-1 record after serving a season as offensive coordinator. Previously, Curl coached at Cherry Hill East High School for five years. One of his scholastic stars, Mark Twitty, was the starting Scarlet wide receiver last season. A native of Chester, Pa., Curl is a 1962 graduate of Richmond where he lettered as a quarterback and received an A.B. degree in History. His graduate work was completed at Bloomsburg State and Glassboro State. The popular South Jersey scholastic coach is a natural for his recruiting duties in that area. Dick and his wife, Beverly, reside in Cinnaminson and are the parents of three daughters, Debbie (16), Karen (14), and Susan (8).

FREDERICK E. GRUNINGER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

A member of the Rutgers Athletic Department since 1964, Fred Gruninger assumed the duties of Athletic Director in January, 1973. Now completing his fourth year at the helm, he continues to head an expanding program of sports with unbridled enthusiasm and confidence.

Aside from achievements which have included a Final Four basketball appearance, an undefeated football season, and 28 straight women's swimming victories, Gruninger has overseen the growth of the Rutgers athletic armada from 16 to 25 programs.

His aggressive leadership has also resulted in the scheduling of both Penn State and Alabama on the gridiron, illustrating clearly the direction in which Rutgers athletics is heading.

"We have sought to make the program as effective as possible in each sport, men's and women's, without exception," explains Gruninger. "We will continue to afford the opportunity for all our undergraduates to become involved."

A 1953 Rutgers graduate, Gruninger played football and baseball as a collegian and later excelled at golf, turning professional for a brief period. As the Scarlet golf coach from 1964 to 1973, he recorded an outstanding 109-30-2 mark.

Prior to his current appointment, Gruninger served as assistant, then associate athletic director for nine years after a five-year stint in the alumni relations department.

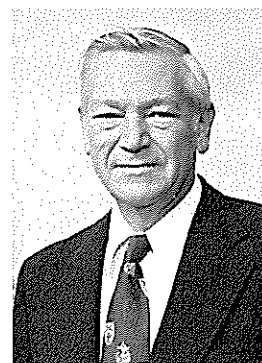

A native of Fanwood and a resident of Martinsville, Gruninger earned his master's degree from Rutgers in 1961. He and his wife, Barbara, are the parents of three children, Mark, Katherine, and John.

DONALD HEILMAN, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

A successful head football coach at Kutztown State College in Pennsylvania for six years, Bud Heilman joined the Rutgers staff as offensive line coach in 1966. He was named assistant director of athletics in 1969 and continued to serve as an assistant in football, coaching the defensive line for two more seasons. Heilman, a native of York, Pa., and a graduate of West Chester State, served as an enlisted man on a Navy destroyer in the Pacific and European Theaters from 1943 to 1946 before he began his coaching career as an assistant at Downingtown, Pa., High School in 1950. He became head coach at Alexis I. duPont High School in Delaware for five years before joining the college ranks as an assistant at Bloomsburg, Pa., State. Heilman and his wife Nancy reside in Spotswood and are the parents of seven children. His son, Buddy, played halfback for the Scarlet varsity in 1975 and works part-time in the Rutgers Sports Information office.

OTTO H. HILL, BUSINESS MANAGER

A member of the Rutgers staff for over 30 years, Otto Hill was appointed business manager of athletics in 1961. A 1942 Rutgers graduate, Hill was a member of the football staff from 1947 through 1955. He served as junior varsity coach, head freshman coach and varsity end coach. Hill also coached the freshman swimming team for nine years while adding the varsity responsibility in 1953-54. A former associate professor of physical education, Hill is a veteran of Army and Air Force service during World War II and earned a master's degree from Rutgers in 1947. In 1961 he was nominated as "Business Manager of the Year" by the College Athletic Business Managers Association. The Brooklyn native, and his wife, Elizabeth, are the parents of three children and live in Franklin Township. Their son, John, is a former offensive lineman for the New York Giants and now is playing his football for the New Orleans Saints.

PART-TIME ASSISTANT COACHES

The Rutgers coaching staff will include the following part-time assistants: Rutgers graduates Jack Hohnstine '66, Oakley Pandick '50, and Tony Pawlik '75; a pair of long time local scholastic coaches, Mel Caseiro of East Brunswick and Ron Helley of Madison Township; and Joe Dowling, a Moravian graduate and a former assistant at Trenton State.

The Perfect Ending

THE PERFECT SEASON — 1976

The 11-game football format provides 39,600 seconds of field action and the final moment of the 1976 Scarlet season was, without doubt, the most dramatic of the intensely exciting campaign. Rutgers took a 10-0 record into Giants Stadium against Colgate on Thanksgiving night, 15 years to the date that the Scarlet Knights had first put together a perfect season on the gridiron.

With Rutgers leading, 17-9, following Mark Lassiter's five-yard TD run with just 1:12 remaining, Colgate moved from its own 33 to the Scarlet eight in eight quick plays. On a second and 10 situation, Red Raider quarterback Bob Relph passed into the end zone with one second showing on the clock. It's believed that large numbers of Rutgers fans, of the 33,405 assembled on that chilly evening, missed the play because of closed eyes and impassioned prayer.

What they missed in the season's final second was Scarlet cornerback Don Harris going high to knock down the pass in front of the goal posts and thus averting a possible tie (with a two-point conversion). Not without the controversy of an earlier miscalled clipping penalty, Rutgers had its second undefeated season in 108 years of football. Giant Stadium rang out with bells, courtesy of the huge message board which pictured the famed tolling bells of Old Queens. Bedlam broke loose.

The perfect season had been achieved, an accomplishment shared by only Maryland and Pittsburgh during the year. Only 18 major college teams in the Northeast have gone undefeated since 1940. Rutgers realized a dream it shares with only one other athletic program — a perfect record in football and basketball within the same calendar year. Army had turned the trick in 1944, winning 15 court contests and nine football games.

In winning his 18th consecutive game, Frank Burns saw his four-year Rutgers record advance to 33-10-1 while also owning the nation's longest current win streak. His splendid squad would be ranked 17th in the country after turning down a bid to play in the newly conceived Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. The remarkable Scarlet defense would be recognized as the first in 19 years and only the sixth in NCAA history to lead the nation in three defensive categories.

Rutgers topped all other defensive teams in total defense, rushing defense and tied Michigan for the leadership in scoring defense. Limiting opponents to 179.2 yards a game, just 83.9 rushing and allowing 7.4 points on the average put the Scarlet in the company of Auburn (1957), Penn State (1947), Duke (1943), Duquesne (1941) and Santa Clara (1937).

Burns, whose team was selected the Eastern College Athletic Conference's Division I Football Team of the Year, was honored as the Coach of the Year by The Walter Camp Foundation and the New Jersey Football Writers Association. His head coaching career at the State University could hardly be more progressively successful. The ledger reads, 6-5, 7-3-1, 9-2 and 11-0, and Burns has twice been runner-up in the voting for the Eastern Coach of the Year.

Burns is optimistic about the odds this season with many of his winners returning. "I'm really looking forward to the coming season. We have a good blend of veterans and youth and that has to give us a certain confidence. The key, of course, is to replace the athletes we've lost and that will be difficult to do. Some, like Nate (Toran) and John (Alexander) were four-year men who actually built the winning spirit. But whatever way one wants to look at the season ahead, it's going to be a very interesting one, especially with our opening in Giants Stadium against Penn State. That game, like the Navy opener last year, has incredible meaning for us and the future."

The Scarlet offensive backfield returns intact and has the advantage of two proven signal callers in Bert Kosup and Jeff Rebholz. Kosup, perhaps the more conservative, has won 18 games in 22 starts and Rebholz, a bit of a gambler, recorded seven victories in a row in 1975. The two top rushers, Glen Kehler (764) and Mark Lassiter (750) join three-year letterman Mike Fisher to form a small but highly effective group. The line ahead of them is well stocked with youth and experience, headed by 1976 co-captain Dan Pfabe, John Fedorchak and Jon Walling.

The Rutgers defense relishes the idea of continuing the recent tradition and features All-East linebacker Jim Hughes and an intact back-up corps. Veterans Dan Gray and Rich Wagner eagerly enter their senior seasons on the line and Bob Davis will anchor a young secondary.

A stunning collection of recruits, further increasing the state emphasis (more than 80 per cent of the entire squad from New Jersey) round out the Scarlet picture. No one predicted a perfect season last year. It would surely be premature to do so, now. However, there is no hesitation about a promising harvest. Rutgers football 1977 should be an exciting field to follow.

THE SCARLET KNIGHTS OF RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

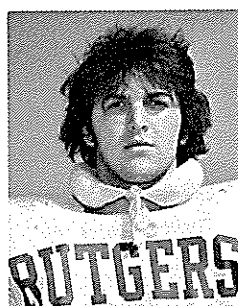

MATTHEW B. ALLISON, 23, 6-2, 195, senior split end from Denville. . . Quickquote: "Matt is a fine athlete who shows good speed; he has adjusted well to the split end position and will help us there this year."—(Curl) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975. Started the season at quarterback when injury sidelined Bert Kosup, throwing four TD passes against Bucknell as he was named UPI's Back of the Week. Lost job to Jeff Rebholz later in season. Moved to split end after sitting out last season. A physical education major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-state and all-county performer in both football and baseball at Morris Knolls, Matt signed a baseball contract with the Philadelphia Phillies and played for their Pulaski, Va. team . . . Varsity Statistics: (Passing) 1975 Att. 81 - Comp. 44 / Yds. 510 / Int. 5 / TD's 6; (Rushing) Att. 27 / Yds. 56 / TD's 2.

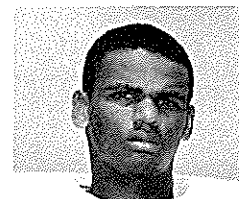

RICK BALDWIN, 20, 6-3, 220, junior defensive end from Westfield . . . Quickquote: "Rick is a real hustler and now has the experience to go along with the desire; he likes to hit people."—(Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1976. Spent last season as understudy to Nate Toran, playing only in spots. Had a super spring game and now seems ready to take on starting berth. A liberal arts major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: Two-way end at Westfield High School where he was All-Group IV and second team All-State. Played with Glen Kehler and Bob Davis there . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) Prim. 9 / Asst. 3 / Tot. 12.

TIMOTHY M. BLANCHARD, 21, 6-1, 210, senior linebacker from Randolph . . . Quickquote: "Tim has good size and strength, and plays with a great deal of intensity; he will play a vital role in our defensive unit this year."—(Naso) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Was squad's fourth leading tackler last season while splitting the linebacking chores with Elvin Washington. Recovered a fumble and had one pass interception, while breaking up two passes for the nation's number one ranked defense. A business major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-state, all-county, and all-area performer at Randolph High School from which he graduated in 1974. Also played at halfback and quarterback and lettered in basketball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1975 Prim. 17 / Asst. 10 / Tot. 27; 1976 Prim. 40 / Asst. 27 / Tot. 67.

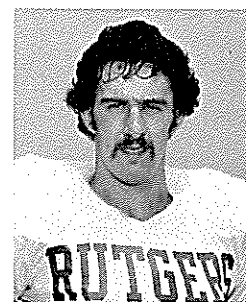

JOHN BUCCI, 20, 6-1, 215, junior offensive guard from Warminster, Pa. . . Quickquote: "John is quick, tough, and strong; he made a fine adjustment to offense after playing at defense for a year."—(Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Alternated at a guard spot with Ray Kinch throughout last season, serving as a messenger. Played on special teams as a freshman and was slated for the middle guard spot last season until being switched to the offensive line in September. An agricultural economics major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: Co-captain of an Archbishop Wood High School team that won the Philadelphia City Championship. Played both center and defensive guard while being named his team's most valuable player and gaining third team All-Pennsylvania, second team all-scholastic, and all-Catholic honors.

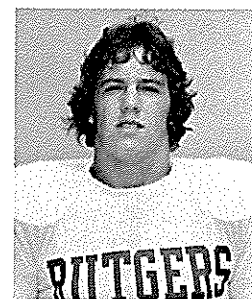

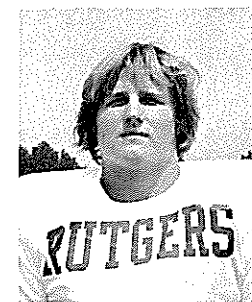

RUTGERS

GEORGE CARTER, 19, 6-5, 200, sophomore tight end from Chester, PA . . . Quickquote: "George is still growing and getting much stronger and though he'll play behind Jon (Walling), he'll see a lot of action. A fine athlete, he has excellent potential." — (Curl) . . . Rutgers Experience: Was a starter and standout on the fine Scarlet sub-varsity unit as a freshman and saw late-game action for the varsity. Seems ready to step into Walling's shoes as a blocker and receiver. Accounting major . . . Scholastic Background: Captained his football squad at Chester High as a center, competed in track as a high jumper and also played basketball.

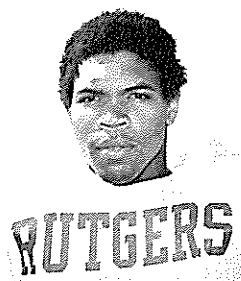

FRANK CERONE, 19, 6-4, 230, sophomore offensive tackle from Hicksville, N.Y. . . Quickquote: "Frank had a very good spring and quickly advanced to the one or two spot on the left side. He's strong, a hard worker and is serious about the game. A former wrestler, he is also quick with good agility. He has a fine future in football." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Starter for the sub-varsity in freshman season with a varsity look-see late in the year. A pre-dental major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Received numerous honors in four-year career at Hicksville, including all-state second team recognition, also all-county, all-area and Big 44 acclaim. Ranked fourth in Nassau County as a heavyweight wrestler.

KEVIN P. CONLIN, 19, 6-2, 200, sophomore linebacker from Wilmington, Del. . . Quickquote: "Kevin has great knowledge of the game. One of his biggest assets is that he can play a couple of positions for us. He has good movement and quickness. The type of player you like to have in your program. He has a bright future and should see some action this year." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Played a lot of sub-varsity football last year but still made the varsity travel squad toward the end of the season. He played mostly on special teams last year. Slated to be either a reserve at outside linebacker or defensive end. A solid and sound athlete who can really hit. A biology major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: An All-State selection at Salesianum High School in Delaware where he earned a letter all four years as a tight end and a defensive end.

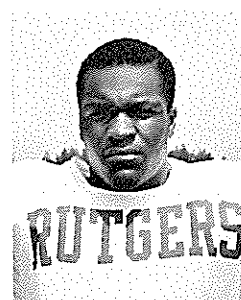

LEONARD E. DAVIS, 21, 6-3, 200, senior linebacker from Newark . . . Quikquote: "Len is a very disciplined player with good size and range; tough against the run and reacts well against the pass." — (Naso) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. After playing behind Dwight Lipscomb as a sophomore, Len moved into a starting linebacker slot, where he spent last season. Ninth on the team in tackles, he also broke up four passes. Enrolled in the College of Engineering . . . Scholastic Background: Starred in three sports at East Side High School in Newark. As a two-way end, he was all-city, all-area, and third team all-county. In basketball he was third team all-state, and won the city high jump championship in 1971 and 1972 . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1976 Prim. 26 / Asst. 16 / Tot. 42.

RUTGERS

ROBERT W. DAVIS, 21, 6-0, 175, senior free safety from Westfield . . . Quikquote: "Bob is a very confident performer who usually makes the right play; his experience makes him especially valuable to the defense." (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Letterman in 1975 and 1976. A starter last season after playing a year as a substitute, he has collected eight career interceptions, having tied for the team lead with five last season. He had 105 yards in interception returns last year, including a 30-yard jaunt against Tulane. A physical education major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: An All-Metro quarterback and defensive back at Westfield High School. Also won letters in baseball and basketball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1975 Prim. 29 / Asst. 16 / Tot. 45; 1976 Prim. 22 / Asst. 15 / Tot. 37.

SAMMIE L. DAVIS, 21, 6-0, 185, junior strong safety from Plainfield . . . Quikquote: "His speed and quickness are his major assets; his potential is limitless." — (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Though not a starter either season, Davis has progressed rapidly since a few early appearances his freshman year. Played substantial time as a reserve last season, recovering one fumble and breaking up one pass. A fine natural athlete who has a bright future in the defensive secondary. Liberal Arts major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: All-area and all-county selection as a two-way end at Plainfield High School. Also ran track for four years . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1975 Prim. 20 / Asst. 7 / Tot. 27; 1976 Prim. 15 / Asst. 4 / Tot. 19.

batted over .300 as a senior and lettered three straight years.

DOUGLAS N. deMARRAIS, 21, 6-4, 240, junior offensive guard from Emerson . . . Quikquote: "Doug's progress has really been slowed by his knee problems; he gives us added depth in the line." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Has missed most of past two seasons due to knee problems, which required surgery last summer. Has played most positions on the offensive line. A history education major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Played guard and defensive tackle at Emerson High School. Also found time to play both baseball and hockey for the Bergen County school. A solid catcher, he DENNIS ECKELS, 21, 6-3, 235, senior defensive tackle from Easton, CT . . . Quikquote: "Dennis has a real good attitude and realizes how hard you have to work to improve; a real hard hitter." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Playing behind Dan Gray last season, Dennis saw only limited action. Again this season he is slated to play behind Gray at the right defensive tackle slot. A student at the College of Engineering . . . Scholastic Background: All-county and all-area as an offensive tackle and defensive end at Bridgeport's Notre Dame High School in Connecticut. Also threw the javelin in track .

High School and also lettered in wrestling.

JOHN FEDORCHAK, 21, 6-2, 225, senior center from Cranford . . . Quikquote: "A very strong and dependable blocker; he handles the ball well, gives the QBs confidence, and plays with intelligence." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Shared the starting job as a sophomore, but took full possession as a junior. Pivotal blocker in running game, a real menace to opposing linebackers. Adjusts well to changing quarterbacks and an excellent pass-blocker. A physical education major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic background: An all-county and all-conference football player at Cranford High School and also lettered in wrestling.

MICHAEL M. FISHER, 21, 5-11, 190, senior halfback from Edison . . . Quikquote: "Mike is as complete a football player as any athlete we've had here. He's a great blocker, he's unselfish, he gives us the veteran leadership and, of course, he's such a determined runner." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974-75-76. Last year's third best rusher and also third in receptions, Mike gained 523 yards on the ground on 138 carries and caught nine passes for 119 yards, a 14.1 average per grab. He returned punts for a 7.2 average and kickoffs for 16.3. A good season could make Mike one of the leading ball carriers in Rutgers history. He does it all. A business administration major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Garnered all-state, all-conference and all-area honors at Edison High where he also lettered in baseball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Rushing) 1974 Att. 102 / Yds. 622 / TD's 2; 1975 Att. 127 / Yds. 545 / TD's 8; 1976 Att. 138 / Yds. 523 / TD's 7. (Receiving) 1974 Cgt. 9 / Yds. 182 / TD's 0; 1975 Cgt. 6 / Yds. 127 / TD's 1; 1976 Cgt. 9 / Yds. 119 / TD's 1. (Kickoff returns) 1975 8/213/0; 1976 8/131/0. (Punt Returns) 1975 5/72/0; 1976 5/36/0.

RUTGERS

JOHN E. GALLO, 20, 6-4, 270, junior offensive tackle from Yonkers, NY . . . Quikquote: "John is a very strong athlete and a good blocker; he has a bright future ahead of him." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Saw a lot of action last year in a reserve capacity after doing the same his freshman year. A pre-law student at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: A two-way tackle, selected twice to the all-league squad at Lincoln High School in Yonkers. Also an all-star in baseball who hit .385 while playing first base. Had exceptional power as a hitter.

DANIEL T. GRAY, 21, 6-6, 235, senior defensive tackle from Delaware (NJ) . . . Quikquote: "Dan has great size and excellent mobility; his experience and attitude should make him stand out for us this year." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Has started last 22 games, all at the right tackle slot. Was fifth on team in tackles last season, including a pass interception against Bucknell. Broke up one pass. As a sophomore, caused two fumbles and recovered two. A biology major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-county, all-conference, and all-area pick as a senior at Belvidere High School in 1974. Also lettered in wrestling and baseball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1975 Prim. 38 / Asst. 19 / Tot. 57; 1976 Prim. 38 / Asst. 28 / Tot. 66.

JAMES K. GREER, 19, 5-11, 165, sophomore cornerback from Jersey City . . . Quikquote: "James has real good speed and great reflexes; he should be an excellent defensive back before too long." — (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Limited to sub-varsity ball as a freshman. Excelled in the spring game at right cornerback. A mathematics major at Rutgers . . . Scholastic Background: An all-county wide receiver and defensive back at St. Peter's Prep in Jersey City, James also won five letters in track. Included in his track accomplishments was the championship in Hudson County in the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Considered one of the top sprinters in the state during his senior year. A versatile athlete in high school.

ROBERT A. HERING, 20, 6-3, 185, junior quarterback from Scotch Plains . . . Quikquote: "Bob has missed a lot of activity due to injuries but is very persistent. He gives us security at the quarterback spot." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1976. Injuries have curtailed Bob's playing time and slowed his development. The third-string signal caller behind Bert Kosup and Jeff Rebolz. His father, Herm, played with Coach Burns at Rutgers. A physical education major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-area quarterback for Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School. Also lettered in baseball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Passing) Att. 2 — Comp. 1 / Yds. 66 / TD 1; (Rushing) Att. 1 / Yds. —3.

PETE HONEYFORD, 19, 6-1, 230, sophomore offensive guard from Moorestown . . . Quikquote: "This spring Pete came on very strong in the guard spot and we like the way he attacked his job, especially learning the involved pulling techniques we like to use. He's like a fireplug." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Hardnosed sub-varsity veteran who earned dressing rights on the varsity in late season. Enrolled in the College of Engineering . . . Scholastic Background: An all-South Jersey defensive tackle, Pete helped lead his senior squad to the Group III title and a 9-2-1 record with 73 tackles and eight sacks. Also a member of the wrestling and track teams at Moorestown. A smart and strong wrestler, he was the starting heavyweight for the South Jersey school.

JAMES R. HUGHES, 21, 6-3, 210, senior linebacker from Verona . . . Quikquote: "Jim really developed into a first class linebacker last year. He possesses good size, speed, and lateral movement; is capable of coming up with the big play; performed well as our signal caller." — (Naso) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. An All-East selection last year, Hughes came into his own after spending his sophomore season subbing behind Tom Holmes. Intercepted five passes, returning one for a touchdown in the Lehigh game. Also recovered two fumbles and was named Defensive Player of the Game by ABC for his performance in the Rutgers-Colgate contest. Led the team in tackles by a wide margin. A special education major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: Jim was an all-state, all-county, all-area, and all-conference first team quarterback selection at Verona High School. He also lettered in basketball and baseball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) Prim. 72 / Asst. 41 / Tot. 113.

ROBERT W. HYNOSKI, 20, 5-11, 180, junior defensive back from Manville . . . Quikquote: "Bob has learned well while playing as a substitute and that experience should prepare him for a good season." — (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1976. Saw action on special teams and played frequently enough in defensive secondary to have gained experience. Twin brother Walt also on team. Both depth chart starters for 1977. Liberal Arts major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Second team all-state, all-conference, and all-county tailback and linebacker at Manville High School. Also lettered in track and basketball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) Prim. 6 / Asst. 1 / Tot. 7.

WALTER E. HYNOSKI, 20, 5-10, 175, junior split end from Manville . . . Quikquote: "His speed and good hands make him a potentially super wide receiver; he has learned the position well." — (Curl) . . . Rutgers Experience: Played infrequently, but did team up with Bob Hering on a 66-yard bomb against Columbia. Now slated as top split end. Twin brother also on team. Liberal Arts at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: As a halfback and safety for Manville, Walt received all-county, all-conference, and honorable mention All-American honors. Lettered in basketball, baseball, and track; holds school record in the 100-yard dash with 10.0 clocking . . . Varsity Statistics: (Receiving) Cgt. 3 / Yds. 126 / 1 TD.

RALPH IVEY, 19, 6-2, 190, sophomore outside linebacker from Woodbury . . . Quikquote: "Ralph has excellent talent and has played at fullback and on the defensive line. He lacks size at the middle guard spot where we've put him but he's full of desire and will do a great job for us. He is physical and has great speed." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Earned a letter as a freshman after being shifted from a fullback spot to the middle guard position. Was also a member of special teams. A liberal arts major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: Picked up nickname "Franco" as a fullback with a six-yard average per attempt at Woodbury High.

ALBERT J. KOSUP, 21, 5-11, 180, senior quarterback from Edison . . . Quikquote: "Bert's confidence and poise not only make him a good individual player, but his quality spreads throughout the team. He runs the option well and can throw well, too." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974 and 1976. As a sophomore, Bert went over 1000 yards in total offense, starting every game and led the Scarlet Knights to several offensive records and a national season high of 781 total offensive yards against Colgate. A shoulder injury kept him idle for the 1975 season, but Kosup returned last year to again surpass the 1000-yard mark. His totals leave him within easy striking distance of Rich Policastro in passing and Bill Austin in total yardage, the Rutgers career record-holders . . . A physical education major at Livingston College who also competes on the Rutgers baseball team . . . Scholastic Background: An all-county quarterback at J. P. Stevens High School in North Edison. Also lettered in basketball and baseball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Passing) 1974 Att. 150 — Comp. 64 / Yds. 1070 / Int. 15 / TD's 9; 1976 Att. 141 — Comp. 69 / Yds. 1098 / Int. 6 / TD's 6; (Rushing) 1974 Att. 80 / Yds. 136 / TD's 6; 1976 Att. 74 / Yds. —1 / TD's 3.

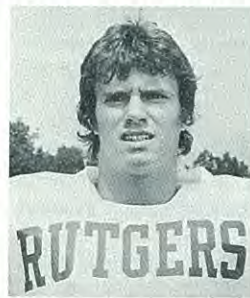

GARY GLEN KEHLER, 20, 5-9, 170, junior fullback from Westfield . . . Quikquote: "Glen proved last year that he has the quickness to be an outstanding running back. He finds daylight very well and despite his apparent size, is especially strong." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Glen had a fantastic season last year, leading the team in rushing with 764 yards on 151 carries for a 5.1 average. Glen got his first starting assignment in the third game of the season against Princeton and responded by rushing for 131 yards on 25 carries. What was even more spectacular, that was the first game Glen had ever played at the fullback position. For the season Glen went over the 100-yard mark four times. He is a communications major at Livingston College. Scholastic Background: All-state, all-Metro, and all-county fullback for his father, Gary, at Westfield High School. One of the top scorers in the state . . . Varsity Statistics: (Rushing) 1975 Att. 10 / Yds. 54 / TD's 0; 1976 Att. 151 / Yds. 764 / TD's 0. (PAT'S) 1975 Att. 41 / Made 37; (FG's) Att. 3 / Made 0.

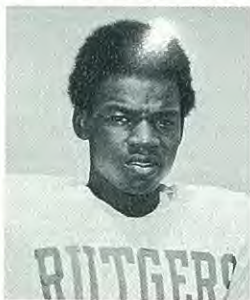

MARK W. LASSITER, 21, 5-11, 190, senior halfback from Cinnaminson . . . Quikquote: "Mark may be built like a bowling ball but what a job he did for us last year. His chief skill is his balance and that, combined with his ability to break tackles, gives him the opportunity to be a big gainer." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Mark finished a close second in total rushing yardage last season with 750 yards on 168 attempts for a 4.5 average. A big help in the scoring department, Mark had 10 touchdowns including three in the first college football game to be played in the Meadowlands against Columbia. Mark also showed his versatility by hauling in seven receptions for 148 yards for an average of 21.1 yards per catch. A business major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-state, all-county, and Prep-All-American as a halfback at Cinnaminson High School. Also lettered in basketball . . . Varsity Statistics: (Rushing) 1975 Att. 93 / Yds. 532 / TD's 5; 1976 Att. 168 / Yds. 750 / TD's 10. (Receiving) 1975 Cgt. 4 / Yds. 58 / TD's 0; 1976 Cgt. 7 / Yds. 148 / TD's 1.

JOHN LAW, 19, 6-2, 230, sophomore offensive center from Delran . . . Quikquote: "John has progressed very quickly; his strength and size place him clearly in the picture for the future." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Played extensively for the junior varsity last season. Liberal arts major at Rutgers . . . Scholastic Background: John was an All-South Jersey selection from Holy Cross High School in Delran, where he played offensive center and defensive tackle. Competed in basketball and baseball until his senior year, when he opted for a conditioning program to prepare for football.

LEONARD McBROOM, 21, 6-1, 175, junior defensive back from Derry, PA . . . Quikquote: "Len's a real leader-type of guy who figures in our depth plans for the defensive secondary." — (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Primarily limited to junior varsity play the past two years, Len now seems ready to contribute to the varsity. An agricultural business major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: Selected the most valuable offensive back in Pennsylvania's Foothill League and a second team all-WPIAL defensive back while at Derry High School.

GENE LAURICELLA, 19, 6-5, 275, sophomore offensive tackle from Carteret . . . Quikquote: "Gino's size and strength make him a great asset on the line; we foresee a bright future for him." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Played primarily on the sub-varsity and saw occasional duty with the varsity. Should be a big help to the offensive line after a year of experience. Size and strength a definite plus for Scarlet running backs . . . A liberal arts major at Rutgers . . . Scholastic Background: An all-county offensive tackle at Carteret High School, Lauricella also participated in track.

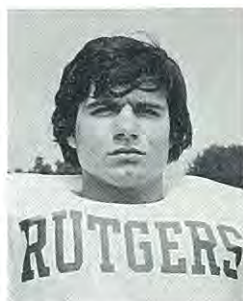

DAN McMAHON, 20, 6-0, 200, junior linebacker from Colonia . . . Quikquote: "Dan made a big contribution to our special teams last season and now we expect him to help out in other areas, too." — (Naso) . . . Rutgers Experience: A leader of the specialty teams, McMahon will fill in behind All-East linebacker Jim Hughes. A political science major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: A captain of Colonia's highly successful football team in 1974, Dan was named to the Daily News All-Star team as well as all-county and all-Metro teams . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) Prim. 13 / Asst. 6.

EDDIE McMICHAEL, 19, 6-2, 180, sophomore quarterback from Jersey City . . . Quikquote: "Eddie is a key to our future; his speed and agility make him an excellent collegiate prospect and a potential star." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Eddie was limited to junior varsity play last season, and figures to play behind Bert Kosup and Jeff Rebholz this season; he will compete for the starting QB slot next year. A business administration major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Hudson County's Back of the Year in 1975, McMichael was a second team All-State quarterback at Lincoln High.

AL MADDALENA, 20, 5-10, 185, junior running back from Osceola, PA . . . Quikquote: "Al is a quick runner with good hands; he affords us depth in the backfield and is a potential starter." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1976. Playing in a reserve role, Maddalena carried the ball infrequently, but did average close to five yards when called upon to run. A science major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-county and honorable mention all-state halfback at Phillipsburg-Osceola Area High School in Phillipsburg, PA, Al holds 10 school records including: 268 yards rushing in one game and a 93-yard run from scrimmage. Had 29 career touchdowns despite an injury which hindered his senior year . . . Varsity Statistics: (Rushing) Att. 12 / Yds. 57 / TD 1.

DINO MANGIERO, 18, 6-3, 250, sophomore defensive tackle from Richmond, NY . . . Quikquote: "Dino did a great job for us last year as a freshman. His size and strength will make the tackle spot a dangerous place for opposing teams to run at." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1976. Replaced John Alexander when the senior star was injured, and filled in brilliantly. His outstanding play was also evident on special teams, highlighted by a recovery of a blocked punt which resulted in a touchdown against UMass. A tough performer who loves to hit. He came on strongly toward the end of the season when he gained confidence. Wound up with 20 tackles in limited action. A physical education major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: A three-sport standout at Curtis High School in Staten Island, NY, Dino was named to the New York Daily News All-Star squad for his play as a defensive tackle. He also competed in basketball and baseball while in high school . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) Prim. 13 / Asst. 7 / Tot. 20.

KEVIN MANNIX, 20, 6-1, 220, sophomore fullback from Syosset, NY . . . Quikquote: "Kevin's skills in the backfield make him a welcome addition even though we have so much experience back there already." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Sat out last season after transferring from Penn State, where he was named MVP in the Nittany Lions' spring game. Also excelled in the Rutgers spring outing, catapulting into the number one fullback slot. An excellent blocker as well as a runner of authority, Kevin is also an accomplished lacrosse player. He should be a big help to the Scarlet Knight ground game. Gained 42 yards and scored a touchdown in Spring game.

JOSEPH C. MOSS II, 22, 6-3, 210, senior punter from Toronto, Canada . . . Quikquote: "Joe provided our kicking game with much needed consistency last season. He's shown constant improvement and is always trying to make a big contribution to the team." — (Naso) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1976. Averaged around 36 yards a punt, but usually kicked the ball high, allowing for good defensive coverage. Economics major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: Played tight end, linebacker, and punted for Cherry Hill West High School. Also lettered in golf when in high school.

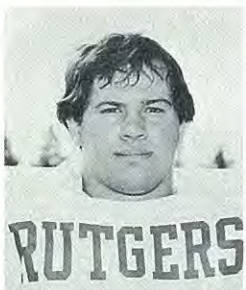

REGINALD M. MOULTRIE, 21, 6-1, 175, senior cornerback from Browns Mills . . . Quikquote: "Reggie is especially aggressive against the run; we feel his experience will pay off in the secondary this year." — (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Played primarily on special teams as a sophomore, and did the same last season, including frequent turns at the right cornerback spot. Now slated for a starting berth. Business Administration major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: A 1974 graduate of Pemberton Township High School where he earned all-South Jersey, all-area, and all-county honors . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1975 Prim. 25 / Asst. 5 / Tot. 30; 1976 Prim. 15 / Asst. 8 / Tot. 23.

DANIEL L. PFABE, 22, 6-2, 220, senior offensive guard from Louisville, Ohio . . . Quikquote: "Dan was a great leader, both on and off the field for us last season. His exceptional football skills make him an excellent college player. We're happy he's back for an extra year." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Co-captain of last season's undefeated team, Dan was granted an extra year of eligibility due to an operation on his knee that curtailed his freshman season. Came to Rutgers as a fullback, made move to linebacker where he played his sophomore season. Then switched to left guard on offense. He started every game last year, earning honorable mention all-East. Pfabe's brother is a starting linebacker for Virginia. An Environmental Planning major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Dan was a hero of sorts at St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Louisville, Ohio, where he was all-state, all-conference, all-area, and all-Diocese as a linebacker and fullback. He also handled the place-kicking chores. Pfabe also lettered in basketball and track, and held his high school discus record at graduation. It was later broken by his brother, who still holds the standard.

JEFFREY A. REBHOLZ, 21, 6-2, 195, senior quarterback from Millington . . . Quikquote: "Not only can Jeff throw the ball, but he exudes confidence and poise and is a great competitor; his attitude is ideal." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Took over as starting quarterback in the fifth game of the 1975 season and never lost. Scarlet averaged 38 points a game for those seven games, including a 56-point spree against Colgate and the clutch 21-10 win over Syracuse. Rebholz's average yards per completion was an admirable 22 yards. Last season, Jeff and Bert Kosup, returning from an injury which had sidelined him the year before, battled it out for the QB slot, with Kosup coming out the winner. Jeff played in a back-up role last season. Rebholz passed brilliantly in the spring game, tossing a touchdown pass and throwing for over 200 yards to place himself back in the race for a starting berth. A business administration major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Played football at St. Charles High School in St. Charles, Ill., for two seasons before moving to Millington, where he attended Watchung Hills Regional High School. Was all-conference in basketball there but did not play football . . . Varsity Statistics: (Passing) 1975 Att. 69 — Comp. 33 / Yds. 715 / Int. 4 / TD's 8; 1976 Att. 20 — Comp. 8 / Yds. 153 / Int. 1 / TD 1. (Rushing) 1975 Att. 20 / Yds. —24 / TD's 2; 1976 Att. 3 / Yds. —22.

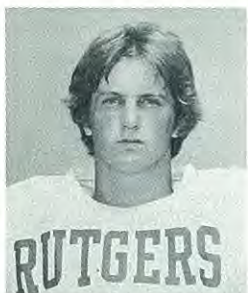

MICHAEL J. SANTARPIO, 21, 5-9, 195, senior full-back from Pennsauken . . . Quikquote: "Mike is a real tough competitor who plays with great desire and enthusiasm." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. Has seen limited action in the backfield, but plays extensively on the special teams. Mike is a mighty mite, won intramural heavyweight wrestling title as a sophomore. A business major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: Earned All-Group IV, all-area, all-conference, and all-Delaware Valley honors while playing for Cherry Hill West High School.

He also lettered in track and wrestling . . . Varsity Statistics: (Rushing) 1975 Att. 14 / Yds. 65 / TD's 1; 1976 Att. 13 / Yds. 33.

GUY W. SARNA, 19, 6-3, 230, junior offensive tackle from Mansfield, Mass. . . . Quikquote: "Guy is very big and strong. What he lacks in ability, he makes up for with a great attitude and full-time hustle. He's an excellent blocker." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Strictly a sub-varsity player for two years, Guy has come out of nowhere to battle for a starting offensive line berth. An aggressive player with good speed. A liberal arts major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Played defensive and offensive tackle for Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, usually one of the top football schools in Union County and the state.

KENNAN STARTZELL, 19, 5-11, 175, sophomore kicker from Bristol, PA . . . Quikquote: "Kennan has given us an added weapon on offense and really stabilized our kicking game. He has excellent range." — (Naso). . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1976. Did all of the place-kicking last year and made 32 of 35 extra points and a record of 11 of 21 field goals. Booted a 43-yard field goal against Colgate. Leading scorer with 65 points. Hit 40 and 31-yard field goals against Tulane. Worked on punting during spring. A business administration major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: Lettered for three years and was all-state at Delhaas High School in Bristol, Pa. as a kicker. Also all-state in soccer, leading his squad to the Bucks County Championship in the 1975 season. Ken also earned three letters in baseball while in high school. While playing football, even recorded five tackles.

ANTHONY TANGO, 19, 6-0, 200, sophomore halfback from Orange . . . Quikquote: "Injuries slowed Tony down last year, but he has plenty of ability. He has very good speed but still has the ability to run over a tackler. A bright prospect in the future." — (Speranza) . . . Rutgers Experience: Hurt his ankle in pre-season camp at Peddie or probably would have seen some action with the varsity last year. Despite problems with his ankle, he played well in sub-varsity games. Science major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: All-State running back at Our Lady of the Valley High School in Orange. Scored 86 points as senior and rushed for 983 yards. Also outstanding centerfielder with .390 batting average and 15-of-16 stolen bases.

FRANK VENEZIA, 6-2, 230, sophomore offensive guard from Lyndhurst . . . Quikquote: "Frank has all the tools to be an excellent blocker. He's young and inexperienced but has the potential to be a very fine football player." — (Taigia) . . . Rutgers Experience: Played mostly with the special teams last year. Had a solid spring practice and was projected after the intra-squad game as the starter at right guard. A liberal arts major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-state defensive tackle and center at Essex Catholic High School in Newark where he was a three-year starter. Also threw the shot for the track team, being selected Field Team Athlete of the Year in his senior season. Can bench press 320 pounds.

RICHARD WAGNER, 22, 6-3, 220, senior middle guard from Wayne . . . Quikquote: "Rich has shown constant improvement the past two years and could be one of the top defensive players in the East this year. He's quick, aggressive, agile and very strong." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. For the second straight year, Rich was the third leading tackler on the team. He also had seven QB sacks for the second time. Injured in pre-season camp as a freshman, Wagner still played in five varsity games. Finished with 71 tackles last year and has a three-year total of 151 tackles. Led the team in fumble recoveries with three. A fierce competitor. A liberal arts major at Cook College . . . Scholastic Background: Won the Sportsman Award at Wayne Valley High School after participating in both football and track and field. Established a state sectional record in the javelin, 196-feet . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1974 Prim. 1 / Asst. 1 / Tot. 2; 1975 Prim. 53 / Asst. 25 / Tot. 78; 1976 Prim. 48 / Asst. 23 / Tot. 71.

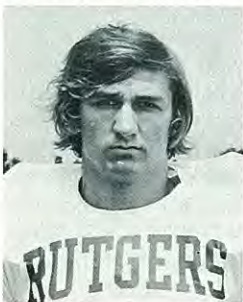

JON S. WALLING, 22, 6-5, 230, senior tight end from East Brunswick . . . Quikquote: "Jon is an excellent blocker and can run exceptionally well with the ball after he catches it. He made numerous key plays for us last year and should be a major offensive weapon for us this season." — (Curl) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1975 and 1976. The second leading receiver on the squad for each of the past two seasons, Jon has averaged around 13 yards a reception since transferring here from Purdue before his sophomore season. Walling had played for the Boilermakers as a freshman. Known widely in the area, Jon is a ready and capable stage figure and could find a future in the spotlight. Starred as Sinbad the Sailor in Cabaret performances at Douglass College last year, a role calling for presence, personality and singing ability. He carried it off like a vet. Has also appeared at benefits for children and senior citizens. Last season, Jon came alive against Colgate, snaring five passes for 52 yards and earning the Player of the Game award from ABC television for his efforts. Interestingly, he has scored only two touchdowns despite 29 career receptions. An anthropology major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: A two-way end at East Brunswick, he won all-county honors and was an all-state honorable mention. Twice he was his school's MVP in basketball and also lettered in track . . . Varsity Statistics: (Receiving) 1975 Cgt. 11 / Yds. 141 / TD's 1; 1976 Cgt. 18 / Yds. 236 / TD's 1.

ELVIN WASHINGTON, 21, 5-11, 230, senior linebacker from Newark . . . Quikquote: "Elvin has the quickness and agility you like to see in a linebacker. He's a smart player who is always battling." — (Naso) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1974, 1975 and 1976. Saw plenty of action, alternating with starting linebacker Tim Blanchard. A tough competitor against the run. Elvin began his freshman season as the number three middle guard but was given a shot at a linebacking job, earning a starting role against Connecticut and then starring in the 6-0 win over Boston U. with a 42-yard interception for the only score. A liberal arts major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: Played four positions and earned four letters at Vailsburg High while garnering all-state, all-county and all-city honors . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) 1974 Prim. 21 / Asst. 17 / Tot. 38; 1975 Prim. 54 / Asst. 33 / Tot. 87; 1976 Prim. 30 / Asst. 18 / Tot. 48.

JOHN WASHINGTON, 21, 6-0, 190, junior defensive end from Paterson . . . Quikquote: "John is very quick and strong. He has a tremendous amount of natural ability." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Lettered in 1976. "Bubba," as he is called by the coaching staff, saw action last year as the reserve fullback. He was moved to the defensive end spot this spring to take advantage of his strength. A liberal arts major at Livingston College . . . Scholastic Background: An all-area and all-county selection as a running back for John F. Kennedy High School . . . Varsity Statistics: (Rushing) 1976 Att. 18 / Yds. 62 / TD's 3; (Receiving) Cgt. 1 / Yds. 7 / TD's 0.

EARL WILLIAMS, 20, 5-11, 190, junior defensive back from Trenton. Quikquote: "Earl has a super attitude and adds something extra when he's on the field. His pride is infectious and his versatility is invaluable. His speed and strength are excellent." — (Savino) . . . Rutgers Experience: Earl picked up the reputation as a "kamikaze" for his abandoned play on special teams last year. Was usually the first man down under punts and took on the wedge often singlehandedly. Blocked a punt against UMass which resulted in a touchdown when it was recovered in the end zone to give the go-ahead points. Gets a shot at the strong safety spot this fall. A liberal arts major at Rutgers College . . . Scholastic Background: An aggressive offensive guard at Trenton-Central High where he was known as a fine versatile athlete as was his brother, Jerry . . . Varsity Statistics: (Tackles) Prim. 11 / Asst. 2 / Total 13.

PETER C. ZIMMERMAN, 20, 6-1, 220, junior middle guard from Cinnaminson . . . Quikquote: "Pete is a strong and tenacious player; he is a hard worker and has progressed each year he's been here." — (Cottrell) . . . Rutgers Experience: Brother of former Rutgers football captain Dave Zimmerman, Pete has been used sparingly in his first two years but now figures strongly in his role as back-up middle guard . . . Scholastic Background: All-South Jersey center-tackle at Cinnaminson High School. Pete also lettered in baseball and wrestling, earning District 27 and Region 8 wrestling titles as a senior.

FRESHMEN RECRUITS

When head coach Frank Burns and his assistants set out on their recruiting chores following the 1976 season, there was one very prominent consideration that governed the annual search for football talent.

Beginning with these recruits — the class of 1981 — Burns is constructing the foundations of a future Rutgers football team that will have to contend with the likes of national powers such as Penn State in 1978, 1979 and 1983, Alabama in 1980 and 1981, and the possibility of additions such as Pittsburgh, West Virginia and Virginia to the schedule as early as 1980.

And from the looks of things, this year's 24-player crop should present Burns with a sturdy and solid base in meeting the task of the upgraded football slate that looms in the upcoming seasons.

"On paper, this looks like our best recruiting year ever," says Burns, now entering his fifth year at the helm. "Our successful season last year and in past years has had a lot to do with that."

Once again, Burns and his staff had only to look as far as their own backyard for the majority of this year's recruits. Dipping into New Jersey's talent-laden high school pastures, the staff persuaded 20 high school seniors to remain in-state to play their college ball, adding further to a Rutgers roster that is heavily dominated with Garden Staters.

But most important is the fact that the coaching staff sacrificed neither talent nor size by concentrating almost solely on New Jersey athletes. This year's group of recruits includes seven New Jersey All-Staters and a New York All-Stater (and All-America) with a 6-2, 211 pound average size for the entire class.

Heading this year's personnel coups are Ted Blackwell, Lester Johnson, Brian Crockett, Timothy Odell, Jeff Blanchard, Philip Parkins, Kevin Kurdyla and Mark Pineiro.

Blackwell, a 6-0, 190-pound halfback from New Providence, was one of the most sought-after schoolboy players in the East this year. In addition to all-state honors, Blackwell drew acclaim as a Scholastic All-American. The 18-year-old established a state scoring record of 254 points during the 1976 campaign (37 TDs, 16 two-point conversions) and logged 4,323 yards on 581 carries (7.4 avg) as a three-year starter. Last year alone he amassed 2100 yards rushing, averaging over eight yards a jaunt.

FRESHMEN (Continued)

Johnson, a 6-2, 185-pound halfback, earned All-State honors at Somerville and was also tabbed a Prep All-American at Massanutten Academy in Woodstock, Va. Twice at the Virginia academy he gained 250 yards in a single game and as a junior at Somerville gained 1873 yards.

Crockett was an all-state lineman at Verona High School, Odell an all-state split end at Summit, Parkins a 6-4, 215-pound all-stater at both fullback and line-backer for Roxbury, Blanchard an all-state linebacker from Plainfield and Kurdyla a 6-3, 255-pound all-state tackle from Newark's East Side High School.

One of only four out-of-state recruits, Pineiro is a 6-2, 180-pound defensive back who gained All-American and all-state recognition while at New York's Vestal High School.

And the list could go on and on.

Each of the remaining recruits carries an excess of honors ranging from all-league to all-county to all-group, with glittering scholastic statistics. Versatility is no problem either, with every position covered by an All-Something standout at different spots.

It's by far and away Burns' top recruiting effort to date. With the future schedules in mind, it may have to be even better next year.

RUTGERS STADIUM

Piscataway, N. J.

Home to the Scarlet Knights for nearly 40 years, Rutgers Stadium was dedicated on November 5, 1938. Appropriately, that day saw a 20-18 victory over Princeton, Rutgers' first win over the Tigers since the nation's first inter-collegiate game in 1869.

The Stadium has experienced 39 football seasons, and 29 of them have ended with winning home records. Last year's 5-0 mark made it ten straight winning seasons in the familiar surroundings.

Construction on the Stadium began in 1935 with funds from the Federal Works Progress Administration and Rutgers University. Today's East and West Stands sit along the sides of a narrow ravine from which 160,000 cubic yards of earth were originally removed.

Over the years, 45 colleges and three service academies have visited the beautiful bowl, which is located in Piscataway on the Busch Campus. As many as 31,000 people — a capacity figure expanded by temporary seating for the nationally televised 29-0 Centennial Game win over Princeton in 1969 — have jammed the facility, although its normal capacity is 23,000.

Tulane will make its first visit to the Stadium this season.

GIANTS STADIUM — THE MEADOWLANDS

East Rutherford, N. J.

Giants Stadium, which hosted two Rutgers contests last season, will be the scene of the Rutgers-Penn State game, September 2. The Scarlet Knights met Columbia in the Meadowlands last October in the first collegiate contest held there, beating the Lions 47-0 before 42,328 fans. And then, of course, Rutgers culminated its unbeaten season there, topping Colgate 17-9 before 33,405 people and an Eastern television audience Thanksgiving night.

The 76,800-seat facility is located in East Rutherford, New Jersey, just off Route 3 and Exit 16W of the Turnpike. The stadium is the home of the NFL's Giants and also the Cosmos of the North American Soccer League.

Aside from Rutgers and Penn State, the magnificent bowl will host collegiate games this season with such participants as Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, and Army.

GRIDBITS . . . PAST AND PRESENT FOOTBALL NOTES

Rutgers opens the current campaign with the nation's longest current winning streak — 18. The Scarlet Knights were ranked 17th in the country last year, the defense leading the nation in total defense, rushing defense and tying Michigan in scoring defense.

With the perfect 11-0 record in 1976 (the second undefeated season for the Scarlet which turned the trick with a 9-0 mark in 1961), Rutgers was the first major college team in 19 years and only the sixth in NCAA history to complete a season as the leader in three team defensive categories. The Scarlet Knight defense allowed just 7.4 points a game, permitted only 83.9 yards rushing per contest and limited opponents to 179.2 yards in total defense each time out.

The 1977 Scarlet schedule brings back Temple, Penn State and William and Mary after lapses. All three were on the 1954 schedule, the last time Rutgers and Temple met, along with three other opponents this season — Colgate, Lehigh and Princeton. Rutgers was 3-6 that year with wins over Columbia, Lafayette and Temple (25-0).

Rutgers won four games in Rutgers Stadium last season to make it 10 perfect home seasons. The Scarlet won seven in a row at home in 1975 and last lost in the Stadium to Connecticut, Nov. 3, 1974.

Of the 24 recruited freshmen this year, 20 are New Jersey residents. The ratio of the 1976 recruits was 18 of 26; in 1975, it was 16 of 22 and the year before 22 of 24. All told, about 85 per cent of this year's squad live in New Jersey.

The 1977 football season marks the 108th year of the game at Rutgers. The first intercollegiate football game was played between Rutgers and Princeton on November 6, 1869. The original site, behind the current Rutgers Gym, is now a parking lot.

Seniors Mike Fisher, Dan Pfabe, and Elvin Washington should earn their fourth football letter this season. They will join Nate Toran, John Alexander, Dwight Lipscomb and Tom Holmes as the only ones over the last 26 years to turn the trick. Freshmen were not allowed to compete on varsity teams between 1954 and 1972.

Bert Kosup, the starting QB in 1974 and 1976, has now passed for 2,168 yards in 22 starts and needs just a bit over 600 aerial yards to pass Leo Gasienica's all-time mark of 2,801. Kosup has also registered 2,303 yards of total offense and is 763 yards short of Bill Austin's record (3,066).

Nate Toran, now with the Philadelphia Eagles, was a third team Associated Press All-America in 1975 and was selected to the AP second team last season.

John Alexander and Don Harris were 11th round choices in the draft, Alexander going to the Miami Dolphins and Harris to the Washington Redskins.

RUTGERS' ALL-AMERICANS

Nate Toran, a second team All-American in the Associated Press ratings last season for his play at defensive end, joins a select group including four authentic First-Team All-Americans who have played football at Rutgers.

The Scarlet All-Americans are Paul Robeson (1917-18), Homer Hazel (1923-24), William Austin (1958) and Alex Kroll (1961).

Between 1913 and 1918, four other Rutgers players were selected to the second and third teams named by Walter Camp. Howard Talman was named twice to Camp's third team, in 1913 as a guard and in 1914 as a halfback, and to the second team as a fullback in 1915. Bob "Nasty" Nash was a second-team tackle in 1914; Al "Budge" Garrett a third-team guard in 1916; and Frank Kelley a third team half-back in 1919.

Toran, of course, was a third team selection two years back before advancing a notch after last year's perfect 11-0 season.

Robeson was the first Rutgers All-America in 1917, though Camp did not publish his list because of the war. Only the third black athlete to be selected, Robeson is the single two-time All-America not inducted into the Hall of Fame. However, the internationally known actor and concert artist, who died January 23, 1976, at the age of 77, is receiving strong support currently towards nomination.

Hazel, who died in 1968, was selected as an end and as a fullback in his two seasons of competition, years that produced identical 7-1-1 records. Hazel was voted into the Hall of Fame in 1951.

Austin was named to the Associated Press' first All-America backfield after captaining the Scarlet to an 8-1 record. A number of his records have been eclipsed recently but he remains the all-time career total offense leader.

Kroll earned first team ranking on seven of nine nationally-named teams and led the Scarlet Knights to a 17-1 record in his two seasons, the second of which was the undefeated season (9-0) in 1961.

RUTGERS FOOTBALL ON THE AIR

The 1977 Rutgers Football Network and the 1977-78 Rutgers Basketball Network is produced by Metro Communications Inc. of Washington, D.C. The games will be broadcast over the New Jersey Radio Network and available to 23 stations which cover the entire state. All games will be originated by WCTC, 1450 AM and WMGQ, 98.3 FM in New Brunswick. Tony Marano is back for his 26th year calling the play-by-play and Lee Shirvanian will join Tony for color commentary.

Metro Communications also produces the networks for the University of Maryland and the Philadelphia Eagles, Baltimore Colts, Washington Redskins and the Baltimore Orioles. The student station is WRSU, 88.7 FM. JERSEYVISION, New Jersey Public TV (23, 50, 52, 58) is also a vital channel for Rutgers football excitement.

PENN STATE PROSPECTS:

Penn State lost three of its first four games last season before winning six in a row so the early game with Rutgers may be to the Scarlet Knights' advantage. The Lions return nine of 11 defensive starters along with the entire starting backfield and, despite an injury-ridden spring, should be ready. The chief aim of Joe Paterno is to come up with a new offensive line. Of the interior starters, only center Keith Dorney, now a tackle, is back but the Lions have loads of fine athletes. Junior Chuck Fusina, a starter after three games in 1976, will direct the attack after 88 completions for 1260 yards. Steve Geise, Matt Suhey and Mike Guman (8 TDs) all gained well over 450 yards last year.

RUTGERS STADIUM, PISCATAWAY, N.J., November 12, 1955 - Lenny Moore scored on eye-catching runs of 80, 60 and 21 yards and gained 179 yards on nine carries to lead Penn State to a convincing 34-13 win. Moore's 80-yarder opened the scoring at the end of the first period and the Lions tallied again at the start of the second. Rutgers got on board on a four-yard pitch out from Bill Gatyas to Greg Holmes which marked the 94th consecutive game in which the Scarlet had scored. Rutgers drove to the Lion three but failed to score and was down 13-6 at halftime. The visitors tallied on Milt Plum's nine-yard sneak on the first possession and then Moore opened the final period with the 60-yard dash. Jack Laverty scored from the one for Rutgers before Moore capped his record-setting day with a 21-yard run.

COLGATE'S PROSPECTS:

The biggest task facing the Red Raiders is rebuilding the outer perimeter of the defense. Colgate lost both outside linebackers and a defensive end through graduation. The Red Raiders will be very strong at the inside linebacking positions and are led by honorable mention All-America junior Doug Curtis and senior Gene Doherty. Returning in the offensive backfield are senior quarterback Bob Relph, who last season tossed for 1353 yards (second best in Colgate history) and 10 touchdowns. Returning at fullback is senior Pat Healy who led Colgate in rushing with 557 yards. Jerry Andrewlavage will be handling all areas of the kicking game.

GIANTS STADIUM, THE MEADOWLANDS, NOV. 25, 1976 - In a game played before 33,405 fans and highlighted by being played in the new Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands and being shown on ABC Regional TV, one play will stand out in the minds of all who saw the game. In the third quarter, with Rutgers punter Joe Moss in punt formation, the snap sailed over his head. Moss turned to chase the loose ball and Pat Horan, a reserve linebacker, shoved Moss to the ground and recovered the ball on the Rutgers 20. A flag was thrown, and Horan was charged for clipping. The 15-yard penalty was marked off from the original line of scrimmage. The Raiders lost 54 yards and possession of the ball which Colgate felt was the turning point of the game. Colgate took a 6-3 halftime lead on two Jerry Andrewlavage field goals. Rutgers came back in the third quarter with a 1-yard TD pass from Bert Kosup to Mike Fisher and added a 4th quarter insurance TD on a 5-yard run by Mark Lassiter. The game ended with Don Harris batting down a Relph pass in the Scarlet end zone.

BUCKNELL'S PROSPECTS:

Twenty-three lettermen are back to provide the nucleus for this year's team. An improved offense with the installation of the Wing-T should give the Bisons more consistency on the ground. Graduation took QB Kerry Snow who set nine school records and was the fifth leading passer in Division II. Junior Rick Becker, sophomore Tim Dunn and junior Tom Smith will be vying for the position throughout the season. The defense is led by returning tackles Tom Krueger (6-2, 242) and Larry Johnson (6-2, 265). John Cieslewicz is the only returning linebacker.

MEMORIAL STADIUM, LEWISBURG, PA., Sept. 18 - Turning a pair of first half interceptions into touchdowns, Rutgers managed to defeat a very stubborn Bucknell team. The first TD came on a one-yard run by Mike Fisher after Len Davis tipped a Kerry Snow pass to Dan Gray who carried it to the Bucknell 33. Split end Mark Twitty then took a 28-yard pass from Bert Kosup to help set up the TD. Early in the second period, Tim Blanchard picked off a pass and Mike Fisher crashed over from the one seven plays later for his second touchdown of the day. Bucknell finally got on the scoreboard late in the fourth period when Kerry Snow scored on a one-yard sneak.

PRINCETON PROSPECTS:

With all five starting offensive linemen returning, the Tigers hope to develop a quarterback and become more potent than last year. Along with the QB key, a healthy season for running back Bobby Isom is essential. Defensively, a major rebuilding job is needed in the front line and in the linebacking crew, but the secondary appears to have a number of fine athletes. Casciola will try to place sophomores in some of the key spots and feels he could have a solid and much improved club. His defense will need consistency and his offense will have to put more points on the board. Precluding these possibilities, the Tigers could surprise.

RUTGERS STADIUM, PISCATAWAY, N. J., Oct. 2 — Rutgers got on the board first at 10:33 of the first quarter on a Kennan Startzell 24-yard field goal and then the freshman specialist added another early in the second quarter to give the Knights a 6-0 lead. Cornell then put together its first drive of the day but failed to score when a field goal attempt went wide. After each team had two third period ball possessions, Cornell finally scored on a 13-yard Hofher to McEaney touchdown pass. The fourth quarter really opened up with Rutgers scoring its first TD of the game on a nine-play, 80-yard drive topped off with a Kosup to Twitty pass completion. A Kosup to Fisher pass was good for a two-point conversion. Rutgers put the game away on a two-yard touchdown run by Mike Fisher and Cornell closed out the scoring with a Hofher to McEaney 16-yard TD pass.

CONNECTICUT'S PROSPECTS:

New coach Walt Nadzak professes he is not totally certain about the outlook of the Connecticut football team. The schedule has a couple of tough games in the first month with the likes of Navy and Yale. According to Nadzak, on paper some positions look adequate and others look weak. There is a concern at the quarterback and wide receiver positions as well as the lack of depth in the running back spots. The team, however, has considerable experience with 34 lettermen back from last year's 2-9 season.

RUTGERS STADIUM, PISCATAWAY, N. J., October 9 — Connecticut fell victim to 35 mile per hour winds, heavy rains and numerous big plays. Rutgers scored in every quarter but it was a three touchdown attack in the second that drowned the Huskies. A 65-yard punt return by Henry Jenkins on the final play of the first quarter set up a one-yard sneak by Bert Kosup. The Rutgers defense put a halt to any UConn attack, which couldn't register a first down until 12 minutes into the second quarter. Meanwhile, Rutgers quarterback Kosup threw a touchdown to tight end Jon Walling and back-up quarterback Jeff Rebholz tossed a nine-yarder to Dusty Bryan. Fullback Glen Kehler led the running game with 125 yards on 18 carries.

TAYLOR STADIUM, BETHLEHEM, PA., Oct. 16 — Lehigh scored the initial touchdown of the game when QB Mike Rieker threw a five-yard pass to Larry Henshaw, three plays after a blocked Rutgers punt. Rutgers got on the scoreboard after a Lehigh fumble of a Rutgers punt when Mike Fisher ran in for the one-yard score. Dave Aprill then scored his first of two touchdowns for the afternoon to give Lehigh a 14-7 first quarter lead. In the second period, Mark Lassiter scored the first of his two touchdowns to tie the score at 14 for the half. Lehigh played the Knights tough the whole game until the fourth quarter when Rutgers put the game out of reach with two touchdowns, one on a run by Lassiter and the other on a pass interception by Jim Hughes who returned the pilfer 26 yards for the score.

WILLIAM & MARY PROSPECTS:

W & M posted a 7-4 record last season, the best by the Indians in 25 years, but faces a rugged schedule in 1977. Root returns 40 lettermen, losing only eight with just four of them starters. Appearing in both the Tobacco and Oyster Bowls, the Tribe will have every player who scored last year and the offense will again be led by junior QB Tom Rozantz and senior tailback Jim Kruijs, both honorable mention All-Americans. Defensively, W&M was ranked fifth in the nation against the pass and returns the entire secondary. With the schedule, Root doesn't anticipate an improvement on the record although he feels he will have a "better team," and that "the future looks bright."

RUTGERS STADIUM, PISCATAWAY, October 18, 1975 — The Scarlet Knights defense limited the visiting Indians to just 50 yards on 39 rushing attempts and allowed only 26 yards passing while the Rutgers offense ran up 317 yards on the ground to record the third victory of the season. Rutgers would win the final seven games and go on to build an 18 game winning streak with W & M the initial victim. Rutgers took a 17-0 halftime lead on a Curt Edwards' TD, a 44-yard field goal by Bill Bradley and Mark Twitty's TD pass from Jeff Rebholz, in the QB's first start. Twitty also scored in the final period on a 13-yard toss from Matt Allison. Edwards gained 204 yards on 37 carries.

Lack of depth and experience, especially in the offensive line and in the defensive secondary, are the weak points but the defensive line and the offensive backfield return veterans. Pat Carey (839) and Terry Gregory (706) combined for over 1500 yards passing last year and Anthony Anderson hopes to improve on his 803 rushing yards. RUTGERS STADIUM, PISCATAWAY, N. J., October 30, 1954 — Rutgers went into the contest a three touchdown underdog on a five-game losing streak and beset by injuries but dispelled all doubt with a 19-point second period on the way to its first win of the year. The Scarlet Knight defense frustrated the Owls who had belted Brown the previous week by limiting the visitors to 46 yards rushing and intercepting seven passes (of 37 thrown). Scarlet QB John Fennell engineered a pair of 80-yard drives, scoring from 14 yards out on one and handing off to Steve Johnson for a 20-yarder on the other. Greg Holmes tallied on a 57-yard punt return and Bob Kelley romped 46 yards for a score after a pass interception. The seven pilfers remain a Rutgers record.

IT'S GOOD TO BE WITH THE OWLS AGAIN. THE TEAMS MET FIRST IN 1948, PLAYED THROUGH 1952, AND AGAIN IN 1954, THE LAST PREVIOUS GAME. VETERAN'S STADIUM IS THIS YEAR'S SITE.

LSU 17, Tulane 7

TULANE'S PROSPECTS:

Head coach Larry Smith recorded a 2-9 mark in his maiden voyage last season. But the mark is deceiving, as the squad improved with every game, playing its finest against Rutgers and LSU. 16 of 22 starters from those efforts return. The hardest hit areas by graduation will be in the defensive secondary and depth in the offensive backfield. Tight end Zack Mitchell heads up a solid offensive line contingent, while last year's leading ground gainer, Billy Kramer, bolsters the backfield. Sophomores Roch Hontas and Tommy Hightower will battle for the quarterbacking slot. Linebacker John Ammerman led the Green Wave in tackles last season. Soph kicking specialist Ed Murray, All-South Independent last season as he converted on 17 of 17 PAT's and 10 of 17 field goals, remains as a major scoring threat.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: RUTGERS 29, TULANE 20

THE SUPERDOME, NEW ORLEANS, November 13 — Kennan Startzell booted a 31-yard field goal late in the game to insure the Scarlet Knights' 10th straight win of the season. Rutgers' number-one ranked defense had been victimized by two early Tulane scoring drives, as the Green Wave rolled up close to 200 yards in building up a 20-17 halftime advantage. But much to the chagrin of the 28,872 people in the Superdome, Bert Kosup directed a 73-yard drive midway through the third period, plunging over from the one to put Rutgers ahead. A safety and Startzell's FG sealed the victory.

BOSTON'S PROSPECTS:

The Boston University Terriers have a new coach in Rick Taylor and that will probably mean a number of changes for the BU football team. Taylor plans using a multiple-I offense and a 4-4 defense. The leading returnees include quarterback Greg Geiger, who will be zeroing in on nearly all the Boston University passing records in his senior season; half-back Roger Strandberg, who could capture the career rushing title with a good season; and veteran defensive players Frank Nigro, Bacuk Easton and Mike Slaughter, all juniors this fall.

NICKERSON FIELD, BOSTON, MA, November 15, 1975 — Curt Edwards gained 151 yards on 22 carries and shared four touchdowns with Mark Lassiter as Rutgers scored its fifth win in a row. After a safety four minutes into the contest, the Scarlet Knights boosted the lead to 9-0 on Jeff Rebholz' 16-yard scoring toss to Edwards with the Terriers getting their only points on a 46-yard field goal at the end of the period. Lassiter's scores on one and two-yard blasts surrounded a one-yarder by Edwards over the middle periods and Jeff Greczyn and Jim Teatom tallied in the fourth, Teatom going 30 yards after an interception. Mike Fisher set up Rutgers' first TD with a 60-yard kickoff return.

AFTER A LAPSE OF ONE YEAR, BOSTON UNIVERSITY RETURNS TO THE SCHEDULE FOR GAME NUMBER 13 IN A SERIES THAT BEGAN IN 1923.

— A CAPSULE HISTORY OF THE SERIES —

PENN STATE

These two state university rivals met for the first time in 1918. Rutgers won that game, 26-3, and then had to wait 32 years to renew the festivities. A 1950 contest initiated six straight years of play — with the Nittany Lions winning them all — and the two schools have waited 22 more years to get at it again. In their last meeting, Lenny Moore made touchdown runs of 80, 60, and 21 yards as Penn State won 34-13. Joe Paterno was an assistant coach back then — that's how long it's been.

COLGATE

This 30-game series, begun in 1933, has featured some of the most memorable and lopsided contests in Rutgers football history. Naturally, last year's 17-9 Giants Stadium thriller to cap an undefeated season needs no rehashing. But a glance at some recent scores — Rutgers wins of 56-14, 62-21, and 43-13 with a 42-0 Colgate whitewash thrown in — gives an idea how explosive the rivalry is. Curiously, in building a 17-13 series edge, Rutgers has not visited Colgate since 1963.

BUCKNELL

Bucknell has dropped nine of the 13 contests these two teams have staged since they first met in 1922, but played the role of spoiler when their 1924 team handed the Homer Hazel-led Scarlet Knights their only loss in the season finale. Since then, the Bisons have been primarily on the short end, recording their last win over Rutgers, 14-13, in 1971.

PRINCETON

The Tigers have usually been there when Rutgers was reaching milestones. Starting with the inaugural football game in 1869, Princeton has a 53-13-1 advantage in the 67-game series, but the Scarlet Knights did not get their first win until the 1938 encounter, a 20-18 decision coincident with the dedication of Rutgers Stadium. Rutgers celebrated the Centennial with a 29-0 romp on regional television. The most bizarre encounter: a 6-6 tie in 1974 punctuated by the "disappearing goalposts".

CORNELL

Of only eight games duration, the Cornell series has been an eventful one. Beginning in 1920 during the Big Red's national power days, the series has seen Rutgers manage three wins, including a 10-0 victory for the legendary 1924 squad. A Cornell visit in 1971 brought in the Stadium's most illustrious visitor, Heisman trophy candidate Ed Marinaro, who romped for 246 yards and four touchdowns in that outing.

CONNECTICUT

Rutgers holds a 12-5 advantage in the series, started in 1940. The Scarlet Knights played gracious visitors in 1956, dropping a 27-7 decision as the Huskies dedicated their stadium. Since then, it has been an up-and-down series, with Rutgers making its last two victories its most decisive ones.

LEHIGH

Rutgers has met the Engineers more often than any other team since the series was initiated in 1884. During the 73-game history, the Scarlet Knights have managed a 41-31-1 advantage. Rutgers has won four of the last five meetings, and the single Lehigh win marks the last Rutgers loss, a 34-20 decision at Bethlehem, Pa. This is the Scarlet's Homecoming Game.

WILLIAM AND MARY

The Indians hold a 3-2 edge in this infrequent series inaugurated in 1954, although Rutgers was a 24-0 winner when the teams last met two years ago. Lou Tepper, a '66 Rutgers grad, coaches the W & M defense. This contest is the Tribe's Homecoming Game.

TEMPLE

Like five other teams on this year's schedule, Temple faced Rutgers in 1954. The two have not faced each other since. With a 4-2 lead in the series, the Scarlet Knights return to Philadelphia, making their first visit ever to Veteran's Stadium to face the Owls.

TULANE

Rutgers met the Green Wave for the first time ever last November in the Superdome, and the Scarlet Knights' 29-20 triumph was televised back to the area. That contest was only the third ever for Rutgers west of the Mississippi, and like Air Force and Hawaii before, Tulane will complete the home-and-home series this season.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Begun in 1923, the Rutgers-B.U. series has encompassed 12 games, with the Scarlet Knights holding a 10-2 edge.. The last Terrier win came in 1965, Rutgers having won five straight since then, including a 41-3 win in 1975 and a 6-0 squeaker in 1974.

A BRIEF HISTORY

Only one university in the United States can claim a colonial background, designation as a land-grant college and the status of a state university. Rutgers, New Jersey's State University, has this distinction.

Now one of the major universities in this country with more than 46,000 students enrolled in college credit courses in 1976, Rutgers had its beginnings when clergymen of the Dutch Reformed Church in America launched a movement for a new college in the Province of New Jersey in the mid-eighteenth century.

As a result of their efforts, Royal Governor William Franklin granted a charter for the college in the name of King George III of England on November 10, 1766. The college was the eighth founded in the colonies.

A second charter, under which college study actually began, was issued by Governor Franklin in 1770, naming the institution Queen's College in honor of Charlotte of Mecklenburg, the Royal Consort.

Classes first opened in 1771 in a tavern in New Brunswick, The Sign of the Red Lion, under the tutelage of Frederick Frelinghuysen. In 1774, 19-year-old Matthew Leydt, son of a clergyman, trustee and founder of the college, became the first graduate.

In 1825, the trustees renamed the institution Rutgers in honor of Col. Henry Rutgers, a New York philanthropist and Revolutionary War soldier, who had given the college modest financial assistance and the bell which still hangs in the cupola of Old Queens.

Rutgers College assumed University status in 1924 and in 1945 the Legislature designated all of its divisions as the State University of New Jersey. The New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station, established on the campus in 1880, also became part of the State University at this time. And within four years the University of Newark and the College of South Jersey at Camden were added as major divisions, thus expanding the campus of the State University to two of the major urban centers of the state.

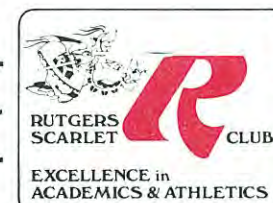

The relationship between Rutgers and the State was carried a step further when the Legislature in 1956, on the proposal of the Board of Trustees, created a Board of Governors to run the University. The name of the institution was also changed under this act to Rutgers — The State University.

Scarlet R . . . The Team Behind the Teams

As the "team" behind the teams, the Scarlet R program plays a vital role in Rutgers University reaching new levels of success in athletic competition. Scarlet R members provide the needed funds to sustain a competitive program and to keep Rutgers teams among the best in the nation. As the Scarlet R program continues to grow, its basic purpose remains the same — to provide financial aid for qualified student-athletes and to improve the quality of men's and women's intercollegiate athletics at Rutgers University.

The Scarlet R Club program is not limited to graduates or even former students. Anyone interested in the advancement of Rutgers University athletics can join.

Additional information concerning the Scarlet R Club may be obtained by contacting Scarlet R Club, Rutgers University Foundation, 191 College Avenue, New Brunswick, N. J. 08903, Anthony D. Oliva, Executive Secretary, (201) 932-7629.
